Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to the Association of Pulmonologists Conference in Tirupati!

We are delighted to host this year's premier gathering of leading pulmonologists, researchers, and healthcare professionals from around the state. This conference promises to be an inspiring and educational event, filled with the latest advancements, groundbreaking research, and innovative treatment approaches in pulmonary medicine.

Join us for a dynamic program featuring keynote presentations from renowned experts, interactive workshops, and ample networking opportunities.

Welcome and enjoy the spiritual ambiance of Tirupati, home to the renowned Lord Venkateswara Temple, and other architectural marvels. Tirupati's rich cultural heritage and exquisite cuisine are sure to leave you captivated, with local specialties such as pulihora, laddu, and a variety of South Indian delicacies.

We are confident that Tirupati will provide a memorable backdrop for APSACON 2025, blending professional engagement with cultural enrichment. Nestled in the heart of spiritual heritage, Tirupati offers a serene and inspiring environment, perfect for our gathering.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation and presence, which will no doubt contribute to the success and spirit of this vibrant scientific gathering.
